
PRAYERS

and thankesgiuing to be vsed by all the Kings MAIESTIES louing Subiects,

For the happy deliuerance of his MAIESTIE, the Queene, Prince, and States of the Parliament, from the most traiterous and bloodie intended Maslacre by Gunpowder, the 5. of November, 1605.

¶ Set forth by Authoritie.

¶ Imprinted at London by BONHAM NORTON and IOHN BILL, Printers to the Kings most Excellent Maiestie.

Anno III. Iacobi Regis.

¶ An Act for a publike Thankesgiuing to Almightie God, euery yeere on the fift day of Nouember.

FOrasmuch as Almightie God hath in all ages shewed his power and mercy, in the miraculous and gratious deliuerance of his Church, and in the protection of Religious Kings and States, And that no Nation of the earth hath beene blessed with greater benefits then this kingdome now enioyeth, hauing the true and free profession of the Gospel vnder our most Soueraigne Lord King IAMES, the most great, learned and religious King that euer raigned therein, enriched with a most hopefull and plentifull progenie, preceeding

ceeding out of his Royall loines, promising continuance of his happinesse and protection to all posteritie: the which many malignant and deuilish Papists, Iesuits, and Seminary Priests much enuying and fearing, Conspired most horribly, when the Kings most excellent Maiestie, the Queene, the Prince, and all the Lords Spirituall and Temporall and Commons should haue beene assembled in the vpper house of Parliament vpon the fift day of November, in the yeere of our Lord 1605. suddenly to haue blowen vp the said whole House with Gunpowder; An inuention so inhumane, barbarous, and cruell, as the like was neuer before heard of, and was (as some of the principall Conspirators thereof confesse) purposely deuised and concluded to bee done in the said House, that where sundry necessary and religious lawes for preseruation of the Church and State were made, which they falsly and slanderously terme cruell Lawes enacted against them and their Religion, both place & persons should be all destroyed and blowen vp at once, which would haue turned to the vtter ruine of this whole Kingdome, But it pleased Almighty God, by inspiring the Kings most excellent Maiestie with a diuine spirit, to interpret some darke passages of a Letter deliuered to his Maiestie, aboue and beyond all ordinary construction, thereby miraculously discouering this hidden Treason not many houres before the appointed time for the execution thereof; Therefore the Kings most Excellent Maiestie, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and all his Maiesties faithfull and louing Subiects, doe most iustly acknowledge this great & infinite Blessing to haue

perpetuall Remembrance, that all ages to come may yeeld Praises to his diuine Maiestie for the same, and haue in memorie This ioyfull day of Deliuerance.

Be it therefore enacted by the Kings most Excellent Maiestie, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authoritie of the same, That all and singular Ministers in euery Cathedrall and Parish Church, or other vsuall place for Common prayer within this Realme of England and the Dominions of the same, shall alwayes vpon the fifth day of December, say Morning prayer, and giue vnto Almighty God thanks for This most happie Deliuerance; And that all and euery person and persons inhabiting within this Realme of England and the Dominions of the same, shall alwayes vpon that Day diligently and faithfully resort to the parish Church or Chappell accustomed, or to some vsuall Church or Chappell where the said Morning prayer, Preaching, or other seruice of God shalbe vsed, and then and there to abide orderly and soberly during the time of the said Prayers, Preaching, or other seruice of God there to be vsed and ministred.

And because all and euery person may be put in minde of this duty, and be the better prepared to the sayd holy Seruice, Be it enacted by authoritie aforesaid, That euery Minister shall giue warning to his Parishioners publikely in the Church at Morning prayer, the Sunday before euery such fift Day of November, for the due obseruation of the said day. And that after Morning prayer, or Preaching vpon the said fift Day of November, they read distinctly and plainely this present Act.

God saue the King.

Prayers and Thankesgiuing to be vsed by all the Kings Maiesties louing Subiects,

For the happy deliuerance of his Maiestie, the Queene, Prince, and States of Parliament, from the most traiterous and bloody intended Massacre by Gunpowder, the fift of Nouember.

I Exhort you therefore, that first of all, prayers, supplications, intercessions, and giuing of Thankes be made for all men: For Kings, and for all that are in authoritie, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life, in all godlinesse and honesty. For that is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Sauiour. 1. Tim. 2.

¶ First the Minister shall with a loude voyce pronounce one of these three sentences following.

Turne thy face away from our sinnes, O Lord, and blot out all our offences. Psal. 51.

Correct vs, O Lord, and yet in thy iudgement, not in thy fury, lest wee should be consumed and brought to nothing. Ier. 10.

I will

Luke 15. I will goe to my Father, and say vnto him Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and against thee: I am no more worthy to be called thy sonne.

Earely beloued brethren, the Scripture moueth vs in sundry places, to acknowledge and confesse our manifold sins and wickednesse, and that we should not dissemble nor cloke them before the face of Almightie God our heauenly Father, but confesse them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtaine forgiuenes of the same, by his infinite goodnesse and mercie. And although wee ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sinnes before God, yet ought wee most chiefly so to doe when wee assemble and meet together, to render thankes for the great benefits that we haue receiued at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to heare his most holy word, & to aske those things which be requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soule. Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as be here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice, vnto the throne of the heauenly grace, saying after mee.

¶ A Generall confession to be said of the whole congregation after the Minister, kneeling.

ALmighty and most mercifull Father, we haue erred & straied from thy wayes like lost sheepe. Wee haue followed too much the deuices and desires of our owne hearts. Wee haue offended against

things which wee ought to haue done, and wee haue done those things which wee ought not to haue done, and there is no health in vs, but thou, O Lord, haue mercie vpon vs miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confesse their faults, restore thou them that bee penitent, according to thy promises declared vnto mankinde in Christ Iesus our Lord. And grant, O most mercifull Father, for his sake, that wee may hereafter liue a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name, Amen.

¶ The absolution or remission of sinnes to be pronounced by the Minister alone.

ALmighty God, the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that hee may turne from his wickednesse and liue, and hath giuen power and commandement to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sinnes: hee pardoneth and absolueth all them which truely repent, and vnfainedly beleeue his holy Gospel. Wherefore we beseech him to grant vs true repentance, and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which wee doe at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternall ioy, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

The people shall answere, Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister begin the Lords prayer.

OUr Father which art in heauen, hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdome come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in heauen. Giue vs this day our daily bread. And forgiue vs our trespasses, as wee forgiue them that trespasse against vs. And leade vs not into temptation. But deliuer vs from euill. Amen.

Then likewise he shall say.

O Lord open thou our lips.

Answere.

And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Minister.

O God make speed to saue vs.

Answere.

O Lord make haste to helpe vs.

Minister.

Glory be to the father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

Praise ye the Lord.

¶ Then shall be said or sung this Psalme following.

O Come, let vs sing vnto the Lord: let vs heartily reioyce in the strength of our saluation.

Let vs come before his presence with thanksgiuing: and shew our selues glad in him with Psalmes.

For the Lord is a great God: and a great king aboue all gods.

In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hils is his also.

The sea is his, and hee made it: and his hands prepared the dry land.

O come, let vs worship, and fall downe: and kneele before the Lord our Maker.

For hee is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheepe of his hand.

To day if ye will heare his voyce, harden not your hearts: as in the prouocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderne ſſe.

When your fathers tempted mee: proued mee, and ſaw my workes.

Fourtie yeares long was I grieued with this generation, and ſaid: It is a people that doe erre in their hearts, for they haue not knowen my wayes.

Vnto whom I ſware in my wrath: that they ſhould not enter into my reſt.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

¶ The other Pſalmes to be read, are the 35 68. 69.

Iudica me Domine. Pſal. 35.

PLead thou my cauſe, O Lord, with them that ſtriue with mee: and fight thou againſt them that fight againſt me.

Lay hand vpon the ſhield and buckler: and ſtand vp to helpe mee.

Bring forth the ſpeare, and ſtop the way againſt them that perſecute mee: ſay vnto my ſoule, I am thy ſaluation.

Let them be confounded, and put to ſhame that ſeeke after my ſoule: let them be turned backe, and brought to confuſion, that imagine miſchiefe for mee.

Let them be as the duſt before the winde: and the Angel of the Lord ſcattering them.

Let their way be darke and ſlippery: and let the Angel of the Lord purſue them.

For they haue priuily laid their net to destroy mee, without a cause: yea, euen without a cause haue they made a pit for my soule.

Let a sudden destruction come vpon him vnawares, and his net that hee hath layd priuily, catch himselfe: that hee may fall into his owne mischiefe.

And my soule, bee ioyfull in the Lord: it shall reioyce in his saluation.

All my bones shall say, Lord, who is like vnto thee, which deliuerest the poore from him that is too strong for him: yea, the poore and him that is in miserie, from him that spoileth him.

False witnesse did rise vp: they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

They rewarded mee euill for good: to the great discomfort of my soule.

Neuerthelesse, when they were sicke, I put on sackcloth, and humbled my soule with fasting: and my prayer shall turne into mine owne bosome.

I behaued my selfe as though it had beene my friend, or my brother: I went heauily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

But in mine aduersitie they reioyced, and gathered them together: yea, the very abiects came together against mee vnawares, making mowes at me, and ceased not.

With the flatterers were busie mockers: which gnashed vpon me with their teeth.

Lord, how long wilt thou looke vpon this: O deliuer my soule from the calamities, which they bring on me, and my darling from the lyons.

So will I giue thee thankes in the great Congregation: I will praise thee among much people.

O let

O let not them that are mine enemies triumph ouer mee vngodly: neither let them winne with their eye, that hate me without a cause.

And why? their communing is not for peace: but they imagine deceitfull words against them that are quiet in the land.

They gaped on mee with their mouthes, and said: fie on thee, fie on thee, we saw it with our eyes.

This thou hast seene, O Lord: holde not thy tongue then, goe not farre from me, O Lord.

Awake and stand vp to iudge my quarrell: auenge thou my cause, O God, and my Lord.

Iudge mee, O Lord my God, according to thy righteousnes: and let them not triumph ouer me.

Let them not say in their hearts, There, there, so would wee haue it: nether let them say, wee haue deuoured him.

Let them bee put to confusion and shame together, that reioyce at my trouble: let them bee clothed with rebuke and dishonour, that boast themselues against me.

Let them bee glad and reioyce, that fauour my righteous dealing: yea, let them say alway, Blessed be the Lord, which hath pleasure in the prosperitie of his seruant.

And as for my tongue, it shall bee talking of thy righteousnesse: and of thy praise all the day long.

Exurgat Deus. Psal. 68.

LEt God arise, and his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him, flee before him.

Like as the smoke vanisheth, so shalt thou driue them away: and like as wax melteth at the fire, so let the vngodly perish at the presence of God.

But let the righteous be glad and reioyce before God: let them also be merry and ioyfull.

O sing vnto GOD, and sing praises vnto his Name: magnifie him that rideth vpon the heauens as it were vpon an horse, praise him in his Name, yea, and reioyce before him.

Hee is a father of the fatherlesse, and defendeth the cause of the widowes, euen God in his holy habitation.

Hee is the God that maketh men to bee of one minde in an house, and bringeth the prisoners out of captiuity: but letteth the runnagates continue in scarcenesse.

O God, when thou wentest forth before the people: when thou wentest through the wildernesse,

The earth shooke, and the heauens dropped at the presence of God: euen as Sinai also was moued at the presence of God, which is the God of Israel.

Thou, O GOD, sentest a gracious raine vpon thine inheritance: and refreshedst it when it was weary.

Thy congregation shall dwell therein: for thou, O God, hast of thy goodnes prepared for the poore.

The Lord gaue the word: great was the company of the preachers.

Kings with their armies did flee, and were discomfited: and they of the houshold deuided the spoile.

Though yee haue lien among the pots, yet shall yee bee as the wings of a Doue, that is couered with siluer wings, and her feathers like gold.

When the Almighty scattered Kings for their sake, then were they as white as snow in Salmon.

As the hill of Basan, so is Gods hill: euen an high hill, as the hill of Basan.

Why hop ye so ye high hylles? this is Gods hill, in the which the Lord hath pleasure to dwell, yea, the Lord will abide in it for euer.

The charets of God are twenty thousand, euen thousands of Angels: & the Lord is among them, as in the holy place of Sinai.

Thou art gone vp on high, thou hast led captiuitie captiue, and receiued gifts for men: yea, euen for thine enemies, that the Lord God might dwell among them.

Blessed be the Lord daily, euen the God which helpeth vs, and powreth his benefits vpon vs.

He is our God, euen the God of whom commeth saluation: God is the Lord by whom we escape death.

God shall wound the head of his enemies, and the hoarie scalpe of such one as goeth on still in his wickednesse.

The Lord hath said, I will bring my people again, as I did from Basan: yea the way we will I bring again, as I did sometime from the deepe of the Sea.

That thy foote may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies: and that the tongue of thy dogs may be red through the same.

It is well seene, O God, how thou goest: euen thou my God and King goest in the Sanctuary.

The singers go before, the minstrels follow after: in the middest are the damsels playing with the timbrels.

Giue thanks, O Israel, vnto God the Lord in the Congregations: from the grounds of the heart.

There is a little Benjamin their ruler, and the princes princes of Iuda their counsell: the princes of Zabulon, and the princes of Nephthali.

Thy God hath sent thee strength: stablish the thing, O God, that thou hast wrought in vs.

For thy Temples sake at Hierusalem: so shall kings bring presents vnto thee.

When the company of the spearmen, and multitude of the mighty are scattered abroad among the beasts of the people: so that they humbly bring pieces of siluer: and when hee hath scattered the people that delight in warre.

Then shall the princes come out of Egypt: the Morians land shall soone stretch out her hands vnto God.

Sing vnto God, O ye kingdomes of the earth: O sing praises vnto the Lord:

Which sitteth in the heauen ouer all from the beginning: loe, hee doeth send out his voice, yea, and that a mighty voice.

Ascribe yee the power to God ouer Israel: his worship and strength is in the cloudes.

O God, wonderfull art thou in thy holy places: euen the God of Israel, he will giue strength and power vnto his people, blessed be God.

Saluum me fac. Psal. 69.

SAue mee, O God, for the waters are come in, euen vnto my soule.

I sticke fast in the deepe mire where no ground is: I am come into deepe waters, so that the floods runne ouer me.

I am weary of crying: my throat is dry: my sight faileth me for waiting so long vpon my God.

They that hate me without a cause, are more then then the haires of my head: they that are mine enemies, & would destroy me guiltielesse, are mighty.

I payde them the thinges that I never tooke: God thou knowest my simplenesse, and my faultes are not hid from thee.

Let not them that trust in thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my cause: let not those that seeke thee, be confounded through mee, O Lord God of Israel.

And why? for thy sake haue I suffered reproofe: shame hath couered my face.

I am become a stranger vnto my brethren: euen an aliant vnto my mothers children.

For the zeale of thy house hath euen eaten mee: and the rebukes of them that rebuked thee, are fallen vpon me.

I wept and chastened my selfe with fasting: and that was turned to my reproofe.

I put on sackcloth also: and they iested vpon mee.

They that sit in the gate speake against me: and the drunkards make songs vpon me.

But Lord I make my prayer vnto thee: in an acceptable time.

Heare me, O God, in the multitude of thy mercie: euen in the truth of thy saluation.

Take mee out of the mire, that I sinke not: oh let me be deliuered from them that hate mee, and out of the deepe waters.

Let not the water flood drowne mee, neither let the deepe swallow me vp: and let not the pit shut her mouth vpon me.

Heare me, O Lord, for thy louing kindnesse is comfortable: turne thee vnto me, according to the multitude of thy mercies.

And hide not thy face from thy seruant, for I am in trouble: oh haste thee, and heare me.

Draw nigh vnto my soule, and saue it: oh deliuer me, because of mine enemies.

Thou hast knowen my reproofe, my shame, and my dishonour: mine aduersaries are all in thy sight.

Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heauinesse: I looked for some to haue pittie on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me.

They gaue me gall to eate: and when I was thirstie, they gaue me vineger to drinke.

Let their table be made a snare to take themselues withall: and let the things, that should haue beene for their wealth be vnto them an occasion of falling.

Let their eyes be blinded that they see not: and euer bow downe their backes.

Powre out thine indignation vpon them: and let thy wrathfull displeasure take hold of them.

Let their habitation be voyde: and no man to dwell in their tents.

For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten: and they talke how they may vexe them whom thou hast wounded.

Let them fall from one wickednesse to another: and not come into thy righteousnesse.

Let them bee wiped out of the booke of the liuing: and not be written among the righteous.

As for me, when I am poore and in heauinesse: thy helpe, O God, shall lift me vp,

I will praise the Name of God with a song:

and

and magnifie it with thanksgiuing.

This also shall please the Lord: better then a bullocke, that hath hornes and hooues.

The humble shall consider this, and be glad: seeke ye after God and your soule shall liue.

For the Lord heareth the poore: and despiseth not his prisoners.

Let heauen and earth praise him: the Sea and all that mooueth therein.

For God will saue Sion, and build the cities of Iuda: that men may dwell there, and haue it in possession.

The posterity also of his seruants shall inherite it: and they that loue his Name, shal dwel therein.

¶ The first Lesson, is the xxij. Chapter of the second Booke of Samuel.

AND Dauid spake the words of this song vnto the Lord, what time the Lord had deliuered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Sauls. And he said, The Lord is my rocke, and my castle, and my deliuerer. God is my strength, in him will I trust, he is my shielde, and the horne of my saluation: my hie tower, and my refuge, my Sauiour, thou hast saued me from wrong. I will call vpon the Lord which is praise worthy: and so shall I bee saued from mine enemies. For the pangs of death closed me about, the floods of Belial put me in feare. The sorrowes of hell compassed mee about: snares of death ouertooke me. In my tribulation did I call vpon the Lord, and cryed to my God: and he did heare my voice out of his Temple, and my cry did enter into his eares. The earth trembled and quaked: the foundations of heauen mooued, and shooke when he was angry. Smoke went out at his nostrils, and consuming fire out of his mouth: coales were kindled thereat. And he bowed heauen, and came downe, and there was darkenesse vnder his feete. And he rode vpon Cherub, and did flye: hee came flying vpon the wings of the winde. Hee made darkenesse a tabernacle round about him: with waters gathered together in thicke cloudes. Through the brightnesse of his presence, were the coales of fire kindled. The Lord thundred from heauen: and he that is most high, gaue his voyce. He shot arrowes and scattered them: to wit, lightening, and ouerthrew them. The channels of the Sea appeared, and the foundations of the world were seene: by the reason of the rebuking of the Lord, and through the blasting of the breath of his nostrils. Hee sent from aboue, and tooke me: he drew me out of many waters. He deliuered me from my mighty enemie, and from them that hated mee: for they were too strong for me. When they had preuented me in the day of my calamitie: the Lord stayed me vp. For he brought me out into a large place: hee deliuered mee, because he had a fauour vnto me. The Lord rewarded me according to my righteousnesse: according to the pureneſſe of my hands he recompenſed mee. For I haue kept the wayes of the Lord: and did not wickedly against my God. For all his lawes were in my sight: and from his statutes I did not depart. In his sight also haue I beene vpright: and haue kept me from mine owne iniquitie. And the Lord did to me againe according to my righteousnesse: euen after my pureneſſe in his eye sight. With the godly thou shalt be godly: and with the man that is vpright, thou shalt be vpright. With the pure thou shalt be pure: & with the froward, thou shalt shew thy selfe froward. And the poore people thou wilt saue: but thine eyes are vpon the proud, to bring them downe. For thou art my light, O Lord: and the Lord shall lighten my darkeneſſe. For by thee I shall breake through an hoste of men: and by my God will I spring ouer a wall. God is vncorrupt in his way, the word of the Lord is tryed in the fire: hee is a shielde to all that trust in him. For who is a God saue the Lord? and who is mighty saue our God? God strengtheneth me in battell: and maketh the way cleare before me. He maketh my feete like Hindes feete: and setteth mee vpon the high places. Hee teacheth my hands to fight: so that euen a bowe of steele is broken with mine armes. Thou hast giuen mee the shielde of thy saluation: and with thy louing meekeneſſe thou doest multiplie mee. Thou hast inlarged my steps vnder mee: and my legges shall not faile mee. I haue followed vpon mine enemies, and destroyed them: and turned not againe vntill I had consumed them. I haue wasted them and wounded them, that they shall not bee able to arise: yea, they shall fall vnder my feete. Thou hast girded me about with might to battell, and them that rose against mee, hast thou subdued vnder mee. And thou hast giuen mee the neckes of mine enemies: that I might destroy them that hate me. They looked about, but there was none to saue them: euen vnto the Lord, but hee heard them not. Then did I beate them as small as the dust of the earth: I did stampe them as the clay of the street, & did spread them abroad. Thou also hast deliuered mee from the dissension of people, thou hast kept me to be an head ouer nations: the people which I knew not, doe serue me. Strange children dissemble with mee: at the hearing of the eare they obey mee. Strange children will shrinke away: and they shall be smitten with feare in their priuie chamber. The Lord liueth, and blessed be my strength: magnified bee God, euen the force of my saluation. It is God that giueth me power to reuenge me: & bringeth downe the people vnder me. He deliuereth me from mine enemies, thou also hast lift me vp on high from them that rose against mee: thou hast deliuered mee from the wicked man. And therefore I will praise thee, O Lord, among the nations: and will sing vnto thy Name. He is the towre of saluation for his King, and dealeth mercifully with his anoynted: with Dauid, and with his seed for euermore.

¶ Then reade, or sing.

WE praise thee, O God: we knowledge thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doeth worship thee: the father euerlasting.

To thee all Angels cry alowd: the heauens and all the powers therein.

To thee Cherubin and Seraphin: continually doe crie.

Holy, holy, holy: Lord God of Sabbath.

Heauen

Heauen and earth are full of the Maiestie: of thy glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles: prayse thee.

The goodly fellowship of the Prophets: prayse thee.

The noble armie of Martyrs: prayse thee.

The holy Church throughout all the world: doth acknowledge thee.

The Father: of an infinite Maiestie.

The honourable: true, and onely Sonne.

Also the holy Ghost: the Comforter.

Thou art the King of glory: O Christ.

Thou art the euerlasting Sonne: of the Father.

When thou tookest vpon thee to deliuer man: thou didst not abhorre the Virgins wombe.

When thou haddest ouercome the sharpenesse of death: thou diddest open the kingdome of heauen to all beleeuers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God: in the glory of the Father.

Wee beleeue that thou shalt come: to bee our Iudge.

We therfore pray thee help thy seruants: whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbred with thy Saints: in glory euerlasting.

O Lord saue thy people: and blesse thine inheritance.

Gouerne them: and lift them vp for euer.

Day by day: we magnifie thee.

And wee worship thy Name: euer world without end.

Vouchsafe

vouchsafe (O Lord:) to keep vs this day without sinne.

O Lord haue mercy vpon vs: haue mercy vpon vs.

O Lord let thy mercy lighten vpon vs: as our trust is in thee.

O Lord, in thee haue I trusted: let me neuer be confounded.

¶ The second Lesson is the xxiij. Chapter of the Acts of the Apostles.

AND Paul earnestly beholding the Councell, said, Men and brethren, I haue liued in all good conscience before God vntill this day. And the high Priest Ananias commaunded them that stood by to smite him on the mouth. Then said Paul vnto him, God shall smite thee, thou painted wall: for sittest thou and iudgest mee after the Law, and commandest mee to be smitten contrary to the Law? And they that stood by, said, Reuilest thou Gods high Priest? Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high Priest: For it is written, Thou shalt not curse the ruler of thy people. But when Paul perceiued that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cryed out in the Councell, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the sonne of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am iudged. And when he had so said, there arose a debate betweene the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was diuided. For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither Angell, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confesse both.

And

And there arose a great cry: & when the Scribes which were of the Pharisees part arose, they straue, saying, Wee finde no euill in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not striue against God. And when there arose a great debate, the chiefe captaine fearing lest Paul should haue beene pluckt asunder of them, commanded the Souldiers to goe downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the castle. And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Bee of good cheere, Paul: for as thou hast testified of mee in Hierusalem, so must thou beare witnesse also at Rome. And when it was day, certaine of the Iewes gathered themselues together, and made a vow, saying that they would neither eate nor drinke till they had killed Paul. And they were more then fourty men, which had made this conspiracie. And they came to the chiefe Priests and Elders, and said, We haue bound our selues with a vow, that wee will eate nothing vntill we haue slaine Paul. Now therefore giue ye knowledge to the chiefe captaine, and to the Councell, that hee bring him forth vnto you to morrow, as though yee would know something more perfectly of him: and wee, or euer hee come neere, are ready to kill him. And when Pauls sisters sonne heard of their laying awaite, he went and entred into the castle, and told Paul. And Paul called one of the vnder captaines vnto him, and said, Bring this yong man vnto the high captaine: for hee hath a certaine thing to shew him. And hee tooke him, and brought him to the high captaine, and said, Paul the prisoner called mee vnto him, and prayed mee to bring this yong man vnto thee, for they haue a certaine matter to demaund of thee. Then the high captaine tooke him by the hande, and went with him out of the way, and asked him, What is it that thou hast to tell me? And he said, the Iewes are determined to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring Paul to morrow into the Councell, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly. But follow not thou their minde: for there lie in waite for him of them more then fourtie men, which haue bound themselues with a vowe, that they will neither eate nor drinke till they haue killed him: and now are they ready, and looke for a promise from thee. The chiefe captaine then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell it out to no man, that thou hast shewed these things to mee. And he called vnto him two vnder captaines, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers to goe to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and tenne, and spearemen two hundred, at the third houre of the night: And deliuer them beastes, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe vnto Felix the high deputie. And hee wrote a letter after this maner, Claudius Lysias, vnto the most mighty ruler Felix, sendeth greetings: This man was taken of the Iewes, and should haue been killed of them: Then came I with an armie, and rescued him, and perceiued that hee was a Romane: And when I would haue knowen the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their Councell, whom I perceiued to bee accused of questions of their Law, but hauing nothing layd to his charge worthy of death, or of bonds. And when it was shewed me how that the Iewes laid waite for the man. I sent him straightway to thee, and gaue commandement to his accusers, that the things which they haue against him, they should tell before thee. Farewell. Then the souldiers as it was commanded them, tooke Paul, & brought him nigh to Antipatris. On the morrow, they left the horsemen to goe with him, and returned vnto the castle. Which when they came to Cesarea, and deliuered the Epistle to the Deputie, they presented Paul also before him. And when the deputie had read the letter, hee asked of what prouince he was. And when hee vnderstood that he was of Cilicia, I will heare thee, said hee, when thine accusers are come also. And hee commanded him to be kept in Herods iudgement hall.

¶ Then reade, or sing.

BLessed bee the Lord God of Israel: for hee hath visited and redeemed his people.

And hath raysed vp a mighty saluation for vs: in the house of his seruant Dauid.

As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophets: which haue beene since the world began.

That we should be saued from our enemies: and from the hands of all that hate vs.

To performe the mercie promised to our forefathers: and to remember his holy Couenant.

To performe the oath which hee sware to our forefather Abraham: that he would giue vs.

That wee being deliuered out of the handes of our enemies: might serue him without feare.

In holinesse and righteousnesse before him: all the dayes of our life.

And thou Childe shalt bee called the Prophet of the highest: for thou shalt goe before the face of the Lord, to prepare his wayes.

To giue knowledge of saluation vnto his people: for the remission of their sinnes.

Through the tender mercie of our God: whereby the day spring from an high hath visited vs.

To giue light to them that sit in darkenesse, and in the shadow of death: and to guide our feete into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

¶ Or this 100. Psal. Iubilate Deo.

O Be ioyfull in the Lord (all ye lands:) serue the Lord with gladnesse, and come before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made vs, and not wee our selues, wee are his people, and the sheepe of his pasture.

O goe your way into his gates with thankesgiuing, and into his Courts with praise: be thankefull vnto him, and speake good of his Name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercie is euerlasting: and his trueth endureth from generation to generation.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

¶ Then shall be said the Creed, by the Minister and the people, standing.

I Beleeue in God, the Father Almightie, maker of heauen and earth: and in Iesus Christ his onely Sonne our Lord, which was conceiued by the holy Ghost, borne of the Virgin Mary, suffe-

Prayers

Prayers and Thankesgiuing for the happy deliuerance of his Maiestie, the Queene, the Prince, and the States of Parliament, &c.

ALmighty God, who hast in all ages shewed thy power and mercy, in the miraculous and gracious deliuerances of thy Church, and in the protection of righteous and religious Kings, and States professing thy Holy and Eternall trueth, against the wicked Conspiracies, and malicious practises of all the Enemies thereof: Wee yeelde vnto thee from the very ground of our hearts all possible praise and thankes for the wonderfull, and mightie deliuerance of our gracious Soueraigne King IAMES, the Queene, the Prince, and all the Royall branches, with the Nobilitie, Clergie, and Commons of this Realme, assembled together at this present in Parliament, by Popish treacherie appointed as sheepe to the slaughter, and that in most Barbarous and Sauage maner, no age yeelding example of the like cruelty intended towards the Lords Anointed, and his people. Can this thy goodnesse, O Lord, bee forgotten, worthy to bee written in a pillar of Marble, that wee may euer remember to praise thee for the same, as the fact is worthy a lasting monument, that all posterity may learne to detest it? From this vnnaturall Conspiracie, not our merite, but thy mercy, not our foresight, but thy prouidence hath hath deliuered vs, not our loue to thee, but thy loue to thine Anointed Seruant, and thy poore Church, with whom thou hast promised to bee present to the end of the world. And therefore not vnto vs, not vnto vs Lord, but to thy Name bee ascribed all honour, and glory in all Churches of the Saints, throughout all generations: For thou Lord hast discouered the snares of Death, Thou hast broken them, and wee are deliuered: Be thou still our mighty Protectour, and scatter our cruell enemies which delight in blood: infatuate their counsell, and roote out that Babylonish and Antichristian Sect, which say of Ierusalem, Downe with it, downe with it, euen to the ground. And to that ende strengthen the hands of our gracious King, the Nobles and Magistrates of the Land with iudgement & iustice to cut off these workers of iniquity, (whose Religion is rebellion, whose Faith is Faction, whose practise is murthering of soules and bodies, and to root them out of the confines and limits of this Kingdome, that they may neuer preuaile against vs, and triumph in the ruine of thy Church, and to giue vs grace by true and serious repentance, to auert these and the like iudgements from vs. This, Lord, wee earnestly craue at thy mercifull hands, together with the continuance of thy powerfull protection ouer our dread Soueraigne, the whole Church, and these Realmes, and the speedy confusion of our implacable enemies, & that for thy deare Sonnes sake, our onely Mediator and Aduocate.

Almighty

ALmighty God and heauenly Father, which of thy euerlasting prouidence and tender mercy towards vs, hast preuented the extreame malice & mischieuous imagination of our enemies, reuealing and confounding their horrible and deuilish enterprise plotted against our Soueraigne Lord the King, his Royall house, and the whole State of this Realme, for the subuersion thereof, together with the trueth of thy Gospel and pure Religion amongst vs, and for the reducing into this Church and land of Popish superstition and tyranny: We most humbly praise and magnifie thy glorious Name, for thine infinite gracious goodnesse in this our marueilous deliuerance; we confesse it was and is thy mercy, thy mercy alone, (most mercifull Father) that we are not consumed, that their snare is broken, and our soule is escaped. For our sinnes cried to heauen against vs, and our iniquities iustly called for iudgement vpon vs: but thy great Mercy towards vs hath exalted it selfe aboue Iudgement, not to deale with vs after our sinnes, to giue vs ouer (as we deserued) to bee a pray to our enemies, but taking our correction into thine owne handes, to deliuer vs from their blood thirstie malice; and preserue from death & destruction our King and State, with thy holy Gospel and true Religion amongst vs. Good Lord giue vs true repentance, and vnfained conuersion vnto thee, to preuent further iudgements: increase in vs more and more a liuely faith and fruitfull loue in all obedience, that thou maiest continue thy louing fauour with the light of thy Gospel, to vs and our posterity for euermore. Make vs now and alwayes truely thankefull in heart, word and deed, for all thy gracious mercies, and this our speciall deliuerance. Protect and defend our Soueraigne Lord the King, with the Noble Prince, and all the Royall progenie, from all treasons and conspiracies, preserue them in thy faith, feare and loue, vnder the shadow of thy wings against all euill and wickednesse, prosper their raigne with long happines on earth, and euerlasting glory following in the kingdome of heauen. Blesse the whole State and Realme with grace & peace, that with one heart and mouth we may praise thee in thy Church, and alwayes sing ioyfully, That thy mercifull kindnesse is euermore and more towards vs, and the trueth of the Lord endureth for euer, through Iesus Christ our onely Sauiour and Redeemer. Amen.

The second Collect for peace.

O God, which art Authour of peace, and louer of concord, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternall life, whose seruice is perfite freedome, defend vs thy humble seruants in all assaults of our enemies, that we surely trusting in thy defence, may not feare the power of any aduersaries, through the might of Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

The third Collect for grace.

O Lord our heauenly Father, Almighty & euerlasting God, which hast safely brought vs to the the beginning of this day, defend vs in the same with thy mighty power, and grant that this day we fall into no sinne, neither runne into any kind of danger, but that all our doings may be ordered by thy gouernance, to doe alwayes that is righteous in thy sight, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

As we doe put our trust in thee.

Made by Dr Barlow of Rochester after his sermon at Paules Crosse on Q. Elizabeth day after her death. vid. 18 Eliz. of Sunday

ETernall God, and our most mighty protector, we thy people of this Land, confesse our selues, a boue all the Nations of the earth, infinitely bound vnto thy heauenly Maiesty, for thy many vnspeakeable benefits conferred and heaped vpon vs, especially for planting thy Gospel among vs, and placing ouer vs a most gracious King, a faithfull professor and defender of the same; both which exasperate the enemies of true Religion, and enrage their thoughts to the inuention of most dreadfull designes. All which notwithstanding it hath pleased thee hitherto either to preuent or ouerthrow, at this time principally thou hast most strangely discouered an horrible and cruell plot and deuice, for the massacring as well of thy deare Seruant and our dread Soueraigne, as of the chiefe States, assembled in thy feare, for the continuance of thy truth and good of this Realme. We humbly present our selues at thy feete, admiring thy might and wisedome, and acknowledging our duetie and fauour in preseruing them and the whole Realme by their safety, beseeching thee for thy Sonne Iesus Christ his sake, to continue still thy care ouer him, and to shield our gracious King vnder the shadow of thy wings, that no mischieuous attempt may come neere, nor the sonnes of wickednes may hurt him, but that vnder him wee may still enioy this his peaceable gouernement, with the profession of the Gospel of thy Sonne Christ Iesus, to whom with thee and the holy Ghost, &c.

God, Infinite in power and of endlesse mercie, wee giue thee all possible thankes, that it hath pleased thee so miraculously to discouer, and defeat the mischieuous plots of thine and our enemies: thou hast deliuered our dread Soueraigne from the snare of the fowler, and his Nobles from the fire and fury of the wicked: hee shall reioyce in thy saluation, and we his people shall triumph in this thy wonderfull deliuerance, thy Gospel shall prosper, and thine aduersaries shall be confounded. And multiply (good Lord) we beseech thee, thy great goodnesse towards our gracious King, and his kingdoms, from this time forth, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

WEe humbly beseech thee, O father, mercifully to looke vpon our infirmities, and for the the glory of thy Name, turne from vs all thoſe euils that we moſt righteouſly haue deſerued: and graunt that in all our troubles we may put our whole truſt and confidence in thy mercie, and euermore ſerue thee in holineſſe, and puritie of liuing, to thy honour and glorie, through our only Mediatour and Aduocate Jeſus Chriſt our Lord, Amen.

ALmightie and euerlaſting God, with whom do worke great marueiles; ſend downe vpon our Biſhops and Curates, and all Congregations committed to their charge, the healthfull Spirit of thy grace, and that they may truely pleaſe thee, powre vpon them the continuall dewe of thy bleſſing: Graunt this, O Lord, for the honour of our Aduocate and Mediatour Jeſus Chriſt, Amen.

A Prayer of Chryſoſtome.

ALmightie God, which haſt giuen vs grace at this time with one accord to make our common ſupplications vnto thee, and doeſt promiſe that when two or three bee gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt graunt their requeſts: fulfill now, O Lord, the deſires and petitions of thy ſeruants, as may be moſt expedient for them, graunting vs in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life euerlaſting, Amen.

THe grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and the loue of God, and the fellowſhippe of the holy Ghoſt, be with vs all euermore, Amen.

The Epistle. Rom. 13.

LEt euery soule be subiect vnto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God. The powers that be, are ordeined of God. Whosoeuer therfore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receiue to themselues damnation. For rulers are not fearefull to good workes, but to the euill. Wilt thou not feare the power? Doe well, and thou shalt haue praise of the same. For he is the minister of God for thy wealth. But if thou doe euill, feare, for he beareth not the sword in vaine: For he is the minister of God, reuenger of wrath on him that doth euill. Wherefore ye must needes bee subiect, not onely for feare of punishment: but also because of conscience. And for this cause pay yee tribute, for they are Gods ministers, seruing for the same purpose. Giue to euery man therefore his duety, tribute to whom tribute is due, custome to whom custome, feare to whom feare, honour to whom honour belongeth.

The Gospel. Matth. 27.

WHen the morning was come, all the chiefe Priests and Elders of the people held a counsell against Iesus to put him to death. And when they had bound him, they led him away, and deliuered him to Pontious Pilate the deputie. Then Iudas which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himselfe, and brought againe the thirty

thirty siluer peeces to the chiefe Priests and Elders, saying, I haue sinned, in that I haue betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to vs? see thou to that. And when he had cast downe the peeces of siluer in the Temple, hee departed, and went his way, and hanged himselfe. And the chiefe Priests tooke the siluer peeces, and said, It is not lawfull for to put them into the treasurie, because it is the price of blood. And when they had taken counsell, they bought with them the potters field, to bury strangers in. Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood vnto this day. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the Prophet, saying, And they tooke the thirty siluer peeces, the price of him that was valued, whom they bought of the children of Israel: and gaue them for the potters field, as the Lord had appointed me.

I Beleeue in one God, the Father Almightie, maker of heauen and earth, & of all things visible and inuisible: and in one Lord Jesus Christ, the onely begotten Sonne of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, light of light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made: who for vs men, and for our Saluation, came downe from heauen, and was incarnate by the holy Ghost of the Virgine Mary, and was made man, and was crucified also for vs vnder Pontius Pilate. He suffered, and was buried, and the third day he arose againe according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heauen, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father.

And

And he shall come againe with glory to iudge both the quicke and the dead: whose kingdome shall haue none end. And I beleeue in the holy Ghost, the Lord and giuer of life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Sonne, who with the Father and the Sonne together is worshipped and glorified, who spake by the Prophets. And I beleeue one Catholique and Apostolique Church. I acknowledge one Baptisme for the remission of sins. And I looke for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

WHatsoeuer yee would haue men should doe vnto you, euen so doe vnto them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

¶ Let vs pray for the whole state of Christs Church militant here in earth.

ALmightie and euerliuing God, which by thy holy Apostle hast taught vs to make prayers and supplications, and to giue thanks for all men: wee humbly beseech thee, most mercifully to receiue these our prayers, which wee offer vnto thy diuine Maiestie, beseeching thee to inspire continually the vniuersall Church with the Spirit of truth, vnity, and concord: and grant that all they that doe confesse thy holy Name, may agree in the truth of thy holy word, and liue in vnity and godly loue. Wee beseech thee also to saue and defend all Christian Kings, Princes, and Gouernours, and specially thy seruant James our King, that vnder him wee may be godly and quietly gouerned. And graunt vnto his whole Counsaile, and to all that be put in authoritie vnder him, that they may truely and indifferently minister iustice, to the punishment of wickednesse and vice, and to the maintenance of Gods true Religion and vertue. Giue grace (O heauenly Father) to all Bishops, Pastours and Curates, that they may both by their life and doctrine set forth thy true and liuely word, and rightly and duely administer thy holy Sacraments. And to all thy people giue thy heauenly grace, and especially to this Congregation here present, that with meeke heart and due reuerence, they may heare and receiue thy holy word, truely seruing thee in holinesse and righteousnesse all the dayes of their life. And wee most humbly beseech thee of thy goodnesse (O Lord) to comfort and succour all them which in this transitory life be in trouble, sorrow, need, sickenesse, or any other aduersitie. Grant this, O Father, for Jesus Christs sake, our onely Mediatour and Aduocate. Amen.

ASsist vs mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and prayers, and dispose the way of thy seruants toward the attainement of euerlasting saluation, that among all the changes and chances of this mortall life they may euer bee defended by thy most gracious and ready helpe through Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALmightie God, which hast promised to heare the petitions of them that aske in thy sonnes name, we beseech thee mercifully, to incline thine eares to vs that haue made now our prayers and supplications vnto thee, and graunt that those things which we haue faithfully aſked according to thy will, may effectually be obtained, to the releſe of our neceſſity, and to the ſetting foorth of thy glory, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord, Amen.

THe peace of God which paſſeth all vnderſtanding, keepe your hearts and mindes in the knowledge and loue of God, and of his Sonne Jeſus Chriſt our Lord, and the bleſſing of God Almighty, the Father, the Sonne, and the holy Ghoſt, be among you, and remaine with you alwayes. Amen.

FINIS.
